About the Stories of Hope

This booklet is a training manual for leading a discipleship group through the “Stories of Hope”. Each meeting will be structured according to the three-thirds process. The first third focuses on loving accountability. The second third focuses on learning and studying a Bible story. The final third focuses on practicing retelling the story and making plans to share and apply the story.

For the first meeting, the first third will be a little different since you have nothing to hold them accountable to. In future weeks, you will hold them accountable to the plans they made during the final third.

For each meeting, follow the three-thirds process that is outlined in the following pages. You will find the story and discussion questions for each week after the explanation of the process. The discussion questions are designed to teach someone to study the Bible.

Each week’s questions will follow the Bible study method that is described on the Page 3. Here are some tips as you get started on your journey to train trainers who train trainers!

Helpful Tips!

Here are some tips as you get started on your journey to train trainers who train trainers!

- Stick to the Bible stories.
- As a trainer, you should plan to talk no more than 30% of the time. Let your group talk the remaining 70% of the time.
- Let the Holy Spirit work rather than looking for right answers.
- Don't talk about religion or politics, either good or bad.
- Stay on topic; don't chase "rabbits" (subjects which are appealing, but off topic).
- Don't dominate the conversation; let everyone participate.
- Don't make long, religious prayers.

Bible Study Method

Hebrews 4:12 says, “For the Word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.”

This picture of a sword helps us to teach and learn from any passage from the Bible. When we think of a sword, we think of key questions that we need to ask.

These questions are designed to help us observe what the scriptures actually say and interpret them as the author intended. Then, we can apply them to our own lives.

The tip of the sword points to God.

“What do we learn about God?”

The hilt of the sword points to people.

“What do we learn about people?”

The sword has two blades.

On one side we ask:

“Is there a SIN to avoid?”

“Is there a PROMISE to claim?”

On the other side we ask:

“Is there an EXAMPLE to learn from?”

“Is there a COMMAND to obey?”

After reading or telling any story from the Bible, ask these questions one at a time and search the story for answers. The answers you find will reveal the meaning of the story for your life.

Pattern of Care

CARE

When needed, breakdown by gender, 3-5 brothers and 3-5 sisters separately) and ask:

- For what would you like to give God credit recently in your life or circumstances?
- With what have you been struggling lately or where do you need help?

Take time to thank God for working in or around you as well as confess struggles and pray for one another.

WORSHIP

Sing a song, take communion or pray through a Psalm or another prayer from scripture.

LOVING ACCOUNTABILITY

Ask these questions in your group.

1. What have you been reading in the Bible and how are you applying it to your life?
2. As you have been sharing the gospel, who are some who have responded to Christ this week or are interested in learning (or continuing to learn) about Christ and His will? (Would someone make a list of people so that at the end we can pray for them?)
3. Who has a story to tell about the Gospel going out or a Bible story being told?

VISION CAST

Explain by story, current events or Scripture why we step out of our comfort zone to share the gospel with those far from God or why pursue holiness. (If the vision cast comes from a passage of Scripture let this be the lesson but if the vision cast is short then you can do a lesson also.)

LESSON

Say, "Today we are going over (tell them the reference and the main point). I will tell you the story and then you retell it a person next to you. Then we will look at the story to get details. After this intro, tell the story and have them retell the story. Then, read the passage and approach with observations first.

Therefore, from the passage ask:

1. Who are the characters in this story?
  - a. What do you discover about God?
  - b. What do you discover about the people?
  - c. Does anything else stick out or would like some clarification?
2. What do you learn from those in the story who are seeking God?
  - a. Is there a sin to reject, a promise or a principle for which to believe God?
  - b. Is there an example to follow or a command to obey?

PRACTICE

Retell the story with the thought of telling it to another person. Or, practice how to turn a conversation to where you share your story and the Gospel.

PLAN

Plan to obey. Because of this scripture passage, what will you plan to do this week?
(Be SMART- Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Realistic and have a Time in which to do this.)

The key to understanding is to take action (Psalm 111:10) on God's Word. Scripture says that if we read Scripture and don't take action, we deceive ourselves (James 1:21-25).

Therefore, we want to plan to take action on what the Bible says.

1. Plan to share the Gospel with those you are praying for, or share God's will with those far from God.
2. Plan events and activities that build friendships.

PRAY

This may be a good time to refresh people of your vision cast. End the time by praying for specific people in your life who are far from God (whether they are longtime friends or recent acquaintances.)

This is a good time to pull out your prayer list. Also, pray for one another and your goals.

GO, SHOW AND TELL OF JESUS

Story #1 – Jesus Forgives the Sinful Woman

Luke 7:36-50

In this story Jesus forgives a sinner and she responds with real worship. This is a great “hook” story for the very first lesson because it gives us some great things to wrestle with:

- Jesus forgiving and touching a sinner. This is in contrast to how many think that Jesus and Christians are judgmental and aloof.
- Jesus forgives her sins. We introduce the topic of sin right at the beginning and see that we need forgiveness.

Discussion Questions

1. What do we learn about God?
  - a. What does this story say about Jesus?
2. What do we learn about people?
  - a. What does this story say about the sinful woman?
  - b. What does this story say about Simon the Pharisee (Jewish religious scholar)?
  - c. What does this story say about the other guests?
3. What are the sins to avoid or promises to claim in this story?
4. What are the examples to learn from or commands to obey in this story?
5. Who do you identify with in this story? Why?
6. What will you pray and do because of this story?

Luke 7:36-50 (NKJV)

36 Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat. 37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil, 38 and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."

40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." So he said, "Teacher, say it." 41 "There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 And when they had nothing with which to repay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?" 43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more."

And He said to him, "You have rightly judged." 44 Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45 You gave Me no kiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in. 46 You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. 47 Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

48 Then He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." 49 And those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" 50 Then He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Story #2 – The Pharisee & The Tax Collector

Luke 18:9-17

The parable of the Pharisee & the Tax Collector teaches that the kingdom is for humble and repentant sinners, not for the proud and self-righteous. Jesus tells the story of the “good” Pharisee who doesn’t need to repent vs. the very bad tax collector who begs for God’s forgiveness.

Discussion Questions

1. What do we learn about God?
  - a. What does this story say about Jesus?
  - b. What does this story say about God?
2. What do we learn about people?
  - a. What does this story say about the Pharisee (Jewish religious scholar)?
  - b. What does this story say about the tax collector?
  - c. What does this story say about the disciples?
  - d. What does this story say about the children?
3. What are the sins to avoid or promises to claim in this story?
4. What are the examples to learn from or commands to obey in this story?
5. Who do you identify with in this story? Why?
6. What will you pray and do because of this story?

Luke 18:9-17 (NKJV)

9 Also He spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.' 13 And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

15 Then they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them to Him and said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. 17 Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it.”

Story #3 – The Paralytic

Mark 2:1-12

In this story, Jesus demonstrates that He is a healer in every sense. But before he brings about the physical healing of a man who had been paralyzed all his life, Jesus shows that His first and ultimate concern is for the man's spiritual health.

Discussion Questions

1. What do we learn about God?
  - a. What does this story say about Jesus?
2. What do we learn about people?

3. What are the sins to avoid or promises to claim in this story?
4. What are the examples to learn from or commands to obey in this story?
5. Who do you identify with in this story? Why?
6. What will you pray and do because of this story?

Mark 2:1-12 (NKJV)

1 And again He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. 2 Immediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. 3 Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. 4 And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.” 6 And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, 7 “Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

8 But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, “Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise, take up your bed and walk’? 10 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralytic, 11 “I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.” 12 Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

Story #4 – Who Is Jesus?

Matthew 16:13-20

People have always had varying ideas about who Jesus is – a teacher, a prophet, a “good man.” But in this story, Jesus establishes that it is not by man that His identity is revealed but by the direct intervention of the Father.

Matthew 16:13-20 (NKJV)

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, “Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?”

<sup>14</sup> So they said, “Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

<sup>16</sup> Simon Peter answered and said, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered and said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. <sup>18</sup> And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not <sup>[a]</sup>prevail against it. <sup>19</sup> And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth <sup>[b]</sup>will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

<sup>20</sup> Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

Story #5 – Jesus Shares His Plan

Matthew 16:21-17:9

In this story Jesus tells His gospel plan and displays His holiness as God's Son. The transfiguration demonstrates His holiness and uniqueness as God's Son. But the preceding verses powerfully show that Jesus planned to go to the cross, rise again, and rule the world.

Matthew 16:21-28 (NKJV)

21 From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day. 22 Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!" 23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men.

24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will reward each according to his works. 28 "Assuredly, I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

Matthew 17:1-9 (NKJV)

1 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves; 2 and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. 3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him. 4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him!" 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid. 7 But Jesus came and touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid." 8 When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

9 Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

Story #6 – Jesus & His Death

Luke 22:66 - 23:25 and 23:32-43

This story depicts Jesus' death on the cross and his forgiveness of a criminal. Even the Romans had to admit that Jesus had not sinned, yet Jesus refused to avoid the cross, which is presented in graphic, painful detail. Even on the cross, Jesus is loving the people around Him and offering forgiveness to those who seem unforgivable.

Luke 22:66 - 23:25 (NKJV)

66 As soon as it was day, the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and led Him into their council, saying, 67 "If You are the Christ, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will by no means believe. 68 And if I also ask you, you will by no means answer Me or let Me go. 69 Hereafter the Son of Man will sit on the right hand of the power of God." 70 Then they all said, "Are You then the Son of God?" So He said to them, "You rightly say that I am." 71 And they said, "What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

1 Then the whole multitude of them arose and led Him to Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying that He Himself is Christ, a King." 3 Then Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" He answered him and said, "It is as you say." 4 So Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no fault in this Man." 5 But they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place."

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked if the Man were a Galilean. 7 And as soon as he knew that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. 8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long time to see Him, because he had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him. 9 Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. 11 Then Herod, with his men of war, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. 12 That very day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

13 Then Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14 said to them, "You have brought this Man to me, as one who misleads the people. And indeed, having examined Him in your presence, I have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him; 15 no, neither did Herod, for I sent you back to him; and indeed nothing deserving of death has been done by Him. 16 I will therefore chastise Him and release Him" 17 (for it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast).

18 And they all cried out at once, saying, "Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas"— 19 who had been thrown into prison for a certain rebellion made in the city, and for murder. 20 Pilate, therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again called out to them. 21 But they shouted, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!" 22 Then he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go." 23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests prevailed. 24 So Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they requested. 25 And he released to them the one they requested, who for rebellion and murder had been thrown into prison; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

Luke 23:32-43 (NKJV)

<sup>32</sup> There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup> And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left. <sup>34</sup> Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do."

And they divided His garments and cast lots. <sup>35</sup> And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God."

<sup>36</sup> The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him sour wine, <sup>37</sup> and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."

<sup>38</sup> And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>39</sup> Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us."

<sup>40</sup> But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup> And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong." <sup>42</sup> Then he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

<sup>43</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

Story #7 – Jesus Rises

Luke 24:1-53

This story highlights the personal reactions of those who interacted with Jesus after His resurrection!

Luke 24:1-53 (NKJV)

1 Now on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them, came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 Then they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it happened, as they were greatly perplexed about this, that behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. 5 Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but is risen! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, 7 saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.' "

8 And they remembered His words. 9 Then they returned from the tomb and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles. 11 And their words seemed to them like idle tales, and they did not believe them. 12 But Peter arose and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he saw the linen cloths lying by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.

13 Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened. 15 So it was, while they conversed and reasoned, that Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. 16 But their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

17 And He said to them, "What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you walk and are sad?" 18 Then the one whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?" 19 And He said to them, "What things?"

So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him. 21 But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened. 22 Yes, and certain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us. 23 When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive. 24 And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."

25 Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?" 27 And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

28 Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and He indicated that He would have gone farther. 29 But they constrained Him, saying, "Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them.

30 Now it came to pass, as He sat at the table with them, that He took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.

32 And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, 34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" 35 And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.

36 Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you." 37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a spirit. 38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."

40 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. 41 But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, "Have you any food here?" 42 So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. 43 And He took it and ate in their presence.

44 Then He said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me." 45 And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.

46 Then He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, 47 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 And you are witnesses of these things. 49 Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high."

50 And He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. 51 Now it came to pass, while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven. 52 And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, 53 and were continually in the temple praising and blessing God. Amen.

Story #8 – The Lost Son

Luke 15:11-32

In this story, Jesus uses a parable to help us understand the way God regards people who are far from Him.

Luke 15:11-32 (NKJV)

11 Then He said: "A certain man had two sons. 12 And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them his livelihood. 13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with prodigal living. 14 But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want. 15 Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything.

17 "But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, 19 and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants." ' "

20 "And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. 21 And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. 23 And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; 24 for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry.

25 "Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. 27 And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.'

28 "But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded with him. 29 So he answered and said to his father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends. 30 But as soon as this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with harlots, you killed the fatted calf for him.'

31 "And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. 32 It was right that we should make merry and be glad, for your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.' "
